

THE INSTITUTE OF AUTOMOTIVE ENGINEER ASSESSORS

Rules and Conduct of Members

Conduct of members

Every grade and member of the Institute shall so order his conduct to abide by the rules of conduct of the Institute as from time to time in force and varied by the Council and shall, in whatever capacity he may be engaged, act in a strictly fiduciary and professional manner towards clients and employers, towards others with whom his work is connected and towards other members.

Rules of conduct

The following Rules of Conduct are laid down to govern the professional conduct of members:

1. A member of the Institute, irrespective of grade, shall be permitted to advertise his services only within the limits approved by Council. The advertising must be in good taste and not of such a character as may reasonably be regarded as likely to bring the profession into disrepute.
2. No member of the Institute, irrespective of grade, shall receive directly or indirectly any gratuity, discount or trade commission in connection with his professional work and his charges to his client shall be his only remuneration in connection with such work.
3. The relationship between a member of the Institute, irrespective of grade, and his client or clients shall at all times be strictly fiduciary and he shall not discuss with any third party the details of his instructions or of any document without the consent of his client.
4. No member of the Institute, irrespective of grade, shall pass on his principal's instructions to another member without first seeking his principal's approval unless the other member is employed within the same organisation.
5. No member of the Institute, irrespective of grade, shall issue a report over his own signature unless the report identifies the inspecting engineer.
6. No member of the Institute, irrespective of grade, shall accept instructions on the basis that no charge will be made unless a successful result is achieved.
7. No member shall by commission or in any other way make any payment for the introduction of work.
8. A member of the Institute, irrespective of grade, shall at all times conduct himself in such a manner as not to prejudice in any way the interests of the Institute or its members or his position as a member thereof or in such a manner as not to bring the Institute into disrepute.
9. The Council of the Institute of Automotive Engineer Assessors alone shall determine whether or not a breach of these rules has been committed.
10. Any member of the Institute, irrespective of grade, must not in any circumstances appear on behalf of The Institute or indicate in any way that he is appearing on behalf of The Institute on any radio, television or public broadcasting system or any other means for communication information to the public or to any meeting which has not been convened by the Council of The Institute or of any committee thereof inferring he is speaking on behalf of The Institute unless he has obtained prior permission in writing from the Secretary of The Institute.
11. No member of the Institute, irrespective of grade, shall misrepresent himself in any claim to, material use or publication of, a grade to which he is not entitled, or which he has not yet been granted.
12. A member of the Institute, irrespective of grade, shall at all times conduct himself in a professional manner towards other members and the general public.
13. Any member of the Institute, irrespective of grade, who acts outside of these Rules, or who is convicted of a criminal offence, which calls into disrepute his integrity, will be withdrawn from the membership register. Notice will be given of withdrawal and representations against such withdrawal may be made in writing.

Expulsion

If any Corporate or Non Corporate member of any grade shall refuse or wilfully neglect to comply with any of the Articles or shall have been guilty of such conduct as in the opinion of the Council either shall have rendered him unfit to remain a member of the Institute or shall be injurious to the Institute, such member of the Institute, irrespective of grade, may by a resolution of the Council be expelled from that grade of membership, provided that he shall have been given notice of the intended resolution for his expulsion and shall have been afforded an opportunity of giving orally to a committee of the Council, or in writing to the Council any explanation or defence he may think fit. The name and recorded address of a member expelled under this Article shall be published in such manner as the Council may decide.
