

Oral examination

iaea
THE INSTITUTE OF AUTOMOTIVE
ENGINEER ASSESSORS

Purpose:

At the end of this unit candidates will be able to demonstrate a knowledge and understanding of:

- Vehicle Construction
- Repair Challenges – manufacture to repair
- Driver Control & Vehicle Handling
- The journey to Zero Emissions
- Advanced Driver Assistance Systems
- Motor Vehicle Salvage
- Motor Insurance Background
- Basic Insurance Principles
- Regulatory Bodies
- Repudiation due to infringement of policy conditions
- Motor Insurers Bureau
- Influence of EU law on Motor Insurance
- The Legal System
- Rules of Evidence
- The Civil Litigation Process
- Contract Law
- Consumer Law
- Arbitration

Summary of learning outcomes	Number of questions in the examination
1. Understand why vehicles are designed as they are today and to understand the challenges that they are designed to meet.	10 questions taken from across the syllabus. All candidates with have a mandatory question on salvage categorisation (learning outcome 6) and are required to achieve 60% to pass the oral exam.
2. Understand the materials used within vehicle body construction, why they are chosen and where they can be found.
3. Understand the principles and systems which provide driver control and vehicle handling.
4. Understand the journey to zero emissions.
5. Understand advanced driver assistance systems and the technology behind them.
6. Understand the practical application of the ABI Code of Practice for Categorisation of Vehicle Salvage
7. Understand how motor insurance developed and the typical cover available today
8. Understand the principles of insurance which apply to motor insurance.

9. Understand the role of regulatory bodies within the motor insurance market
10. Understand the principles and regulatory requirements relating to repudiation of claims due to infringement of policy conditions
11. Understand the activities and agreements operated by the Motor Insurers Bureau
12. Understand how EU law influences motor insurance
13. Understand how the English legal system operates
14. Understand the rules and legal principles which govern the proof of facts in legal proceedings.
15. Understand the rules and principles which govern the civil litigation process relating to road traffic accidents and providing expert evidence
16. Understand the rules and legal principles which govern contracts and the practical application of contract law relating to garaging and repairing a vehicle.
17. Understand how consumer law applies to contracts for sale of goods and services and the redress available to consumers
18. Understand the process of arbitration and the practical aspects relevant to a motor engineer or assessor.	